Pauline MizzLassi Crampy May you bring laughter to the heavens above, just as you did on earth. Thank you for everything you did for my family and I, something that will never be forgotten. Some tears were shed by my four children with my eldest reminding me how much you helped him in his teenage years. Rest peacefully ????

January 27, 2020

It is with great sadness that I share this post of a Cabramatta icon. My beautiful Mum, Margaret Rose O'Neill sadly passed away on 30 December 2019 in the Palliative Care Unit at Liverpool Hospital, aged 77.

Prior to Mums death she had been a resident of Coventry Rd, Longfield St and John St (Cabramatta) for the majority of her beautiful life.

Her employment included 25 + years working at Lansdowne Nursing Home.

Mum was always well known in the CBD of Cabra, and her means of transport were mainly the local bus and taxi services.

It is without doubt that the staff in the Liverpool Palliative Care Unit is living proof that Angels live amongst us.

During Mums funeral service, my sister Cheryl Mcgrath paid homage to the Students of Cabramatta High School who, on Christmas Day, visited the Hospital and shared their love of man kind as they joyfully sang Christmas Carols to the patients. It was the most beautiful experience and a true acknowledgement of the values being instilled in the Students at Cabramatta High.

Mum will be absolutely sadly missed, but I believe her commitment by always remaining a resident of Cabramatta she will always be remembered as a "True Local" of this beautiful town we call Cabra.

RIP Mum forever in our hearts Cheryl & Tony ????

SES Commissioner's September 2011 Newsletter page 8

Vale Paul Ernest Steery

SES Commissioner's
Newsletter September

Paul Steery joined the New South Wales State Emergency Service in 1978, he was 19 years old. Even though he held a job as a young clerk with the Public Works Department he held down at least another two part time jobs in addition to his role in the communications area of the Illawarra South Coast Division Headquarters.

Paul moved to the Kiama Unit in the mideighties and fitted in straight away, and thus was born a relationship between Paul and the Kiama Unit that lasted more than a quarter of a century. The Paul Steery that the Kiama Unit knew and loved was generous to a fault and always willing to help anyone. One of the Unit's memories of Paul was at the Jamberoo Bus Crash in 2005, when a bus carrying more than 20 tourists rolled over on the Jamberoo Mountain Pass. Paul arrived in his car a few hours after the rescue began, opened his boot and started to distribute drinks, chocolates and snacks to the exhausted rescuers. Within a few minutes the boot was empty and Paul was heading back down the mountain for new supplies. Paul was known as a joker by those who knew him well. He would often appear to talk very seriously about an issue and then, once everybody was well and truly involved, come out and say "I was only joking". Even those who knew him well would be caught off guard by his wicked sense of humour and ability to appear completely serious until the right moment to come clean.

Louise Ashton, another member of the Kiama SES unit works at Wollongong Hospital where Paul spent long periods of time during his ongoing battle against diabetes. It was her ritual to pop in each day before finishing work to check on him and have a quick yarn. Paul's hospital room was like a mini office – he had bags full of paperwork, including SES receipts at times. Louise reported that the staff often commented that Paul was a delight and would often sing to them. He will be missed by all.

Paul was a recipient of the National Medal in 1999 as well as the State Medal for Hunter and Central Coast Storms in 2007. He also was awarded the SES Long Service Awards for 5, 10, 15, 20, 25 and 30 years of service with the SES.

He will be remembered by the members of the Kiama SES as one of its primary carers.

Throughout his 32 years with the Service Paul focused on caring and providing support for its volunteers, especially in times of disaster.

When Kiama SES were out helping others in our community it was Paul that would be standing behind them and supporting them with the food and equipment they needed to get the job done or offer a quiet, comforting word after a horrific crash or rescue.

At the funeral on Thursday 8th of September the SES said farewell to a great SES member.

Paul is survived by his wife Bronwyn and children Moria and Max, who will all miss him greatly.
