Policeman found dead in station

Posted 25 Mar 2003 at 3:00pm

Detectives are investigating the death of a police officer at Lismore on the NSW north coast.

They say the body of the probationary constable was found in a room at the back of the Lismore Police Station early this morning.

He suffered a bullet wound to the head.

Acting Northern Region Commander Peter Wadsworth says all police were saddened by the tragic loss.

Assistant Commissioner Wadsworth said a report is being prepared for the coroner, but there appeared to be no suspicious circumstances.
