Farewell to Cliff McHardy

Len Ashworth

10 Oct 2017, 9:02 a.m.

THE death has occurred at the weekend of former prominent Lithgow sports broadcaster and police officer, Clāiff McHardy.

Mr McHardy, always a larger than life personality, was Detective Sergeant in charge of criminal investigations in Lithgow through to the mid 1970s.

He was transferred on promotion to Penrith where he retired with the rank of Detective Chief Superintendent. His retirement home was at Glenbrook but he kept in regular contact with Lithgow. Mr McHardy conducted the live broadcasts of Group 10 rugby league for Radio 2LT which were a popular feature of weekend sport at that time.

Mr McHardy told the Lithgow Mercury that one of his biggest disappointments in unsolved crime was the bizarre incident in 1970 when an attempt was made to derail the royal train during a night time passage through Lithgow with the Queen and Prince Phillip en route to Orange.

A log was placed across the tracks in a cutting at Bowenfels but was dislodged by a 'sweeper'. The incident was officially hushed up but 30 years later made international headlines when revealed in the Mercury following an interview with the retired detective.

The disclosure even resulted in Mr McHardy being contacted by a Hollywood producer interested in making a movie about the drama.

Mr McHardy, who was in his 90th year, is survived by wife Colleen, daughters Ann Marie and Karen and son Peter and their children.

Clifford Mason McHardy

Mr and Mrs McHardy's little boy Clifford Mason was born on the 29th April 1927 to Lyell and Jessie McHardy of Bruce Street West Kogarah. Lyell had deserted HMAS Melbourne on the 4 April 1914, where he had been serving as a cabin boy 1st class. The warrant for his arrest was cancelled in August of the same year. (58)

He married Jessie Isabel Mason in 1925 in Ballina and in 1949 he was listed as a steno typist living with his wife, still at 48 Bruce Street, Bexley, as he did until his death in 1963. (59)

Young Clifford became a police constable, listed on various electoral rolls as being in 1949 at Armidale, 1953 Inverell, 1958-1972 Lithgow, 1977-1980 Glenbrook, staying in the police force for his entire career. He married his wife Colleen Mary in 1963. In 1964 he had raised in the ranks to the position of Detective Sergeant. He was involved in some colourful cases during his career, including the tragic murder case below:

Father Committed On Murder Charge

LITHGOW, Wednesday. — David Herman Mason, aged 25, railway porter, of Brilliant Street, Bathurst, was this afternoon committed for trial at Central Criminal Court on a charge of having murdered his 15-months-old daughter, Rowena Mason, at Lithgow on April 16.

Mason stood impassively in the dock as Mr. A. D. Tyler, S.M., committed him for trial next Monday and refused bail.

Principal witness this morning was Det.-Sgt. Clifford McHardy, of Lithgow, who told of an interview he had with Mason.

He said that Mason told him he had the "urge" to kill the child for almost 12 months.

Mason said he did not intend to kill her in Lithgow, but the car broke down when he stopped to see if she was all right on the back seat.

He said he had walked back to the Lithgow main street, but could not find a garage open.

Mason told McHardy, "It was eerie and dark and that strange feeling came over me again."

He said he went back to the car and got the child and took her to the yard of the Hartley County Council.

He made a noose from string, placed it around her neck and waited until she died.

He then knelt beside her and cried and prayed.

Later he had gone to Lithgow hotel and to a café before catching a train to Sydney.

Det.-Sgt. Stephen Powell, of Bathurst, said that Mason told him he believed that "the babies had been switched at the hospital." (60)

TWO MONTHS' GAOL FOR ASSAULT WITH STOCK WHIP

An Inverell man – described by police as ‘an absolute nuisance’ – who was said to have assaulted Inverell Jockey Club secretary, Jack Marquart, with a stock whip, was sent to gaol for two months by two Js.P. at Inverell Court to-day.

He was William David Gordon Munsie, aged 50, of no fixed abode. Munsie pleaded ‘not guilty’ to having unlawfully assaulted John Ambrose Marquart at Inverell racecourse on December 30, 1952.

Constable Clifford Mason McHardy said about 3:20 p.m. on December 30, following a telephone call to Inverell police station, he went to the stable at the rear of Inverell racecourse, where he was told something. ”

I saw the defendant riding a horse alone a track running at the rear of the course. ” When I first saw him he would have been about 300 yards from me. ” I started to follow him in the police truck along the roadway, and at the time the defendant was walking the horse. ” He appeared to look round and broke his horse into a full gallop.”

Const. McHardy said he pursued the defendant for about two miles through the paddock and all the time the defendant kept the horse at a full gallop.

” Marks On His Back ”

” I arrested the defendant at his camp on December 31, and when I told him it was alleged he had assaulted Jack Marquart with a whip and had tried to run him down with his horse at the back of the racecourse, Munsie said: ” I was trying to make him let go of my bridle “. Const. McHardy said Munsie was then taken to Inverell police station and charged. The whip had been recovered at the racecourse at the time of the incident.

He said he had spoken to Marquart at the course and he had a number of marks down his back. Answering the defendant, Const.

McHardy said Munsie went for two miles from the time he followed him to the time he lost him.

John Ambrose Marquart, clerk, of 85 Vivian Street, Inverell, said on December 30 last he was at the Inverell racecourse. He said Munsie went to the racecourse about 3 or 3.15 p.m. " The first salute I got from Munsie was when he rode up to the loading ramp where the horses unload, and said: 'Good day, Marquart.' " " I said: 'Good day. Chappie'. " He rode away to some men at the new stable doors, and the next thing I knew was that Munsie was bellowing abuse and very bad language. " I walked over towards him and said "Get away out of the road as quick as you can.' " He turned towards me with the horse he was on and charged straight for me. " He appeared to be in a very drunken state and all you could hear was very bad language coming out of his mouth." said Marquart. " When he charged me I stepped aside and took hold of the horse by a check rein he was using on the horse. " I held the horse by the rein, and then Munsie got into me with a double whip. " He tried to flog me with the whip from the horse. " He struck me with the whip. " The marks on my body show he struck me at least three times. He hit me on the left shoulder," Marquart said. " I took the whip off him during the struggle. (The whip was produced in Court).

Marquart said he was wearing only a shirt and took the full force of the blows. " After the first blow, I said to him: 'For God's sake. Chappie, go away. If you don't I'll have to send for the police'. " I got my son to inform the police." Marquart said the defendant was not employed at the racecourse on that day. He had no authority to be in the enclosure. " I gave him no provocation to charge me and try to run me down."

" Look Out, Jack "

He said he walked towards the gate to try to entice Munsie away. " I was walking about 10 paces away when he came for me a second time. " I heard someone say: 'Look out. Jack.' I stepped aside and Munsie went past me. " It was the second time he tried to run me down. " He saw the police coming and took to the hills." Marquart said he had possession of the whip when Munsie charged him a second time.

Messrs B. A. Wood and J. Carmody, Js.P., were on the Bench. Sgt. J. McD. Dwyer prosecuted. Sgt. Dwyer said Munsie had a long record including a conviction for assault on December 15, 1947. for which he received one month's hard labor, and another conviction for assault on June 24, 1949, when he received 14 days. " He's an absolute nuisance," Sgt. Dwyer said. " He's only just been discharged from gaol. He's no sooner out than he's in again."

Convicting Munsie, the chairman of the Bench. Mr. Wood, said: " This sort of thing will not be tolerated. You have a very bad record. You will go to gaol for two months."

WRONGFUL ARREST

CLAIM AGAINST CONSTABLE REJECTED

A Parramatta District Court jury on Friday rejected a claim for damages against a police constable.

Laurence Beresford Tibbles, of Chetwynd Road, Guildford, sued Constable Laurence Shields, of Merrylands, for £1.000, alleging wrongful arrest, assault and malicious prosecution.

Mr. N. Nelson, for Tibbles, said his client had used insulting words when Constable Shields came to his house on December 20 last. Constable Shields had arrested Tibbles " on the spur of the moment " knowing that no offence was committed as the words had not been said in a public place, A magistrate in a lower Court hearing had dismissed the charge of insulting words on the grounds they could not be heard in public. and showed " reckless indifference " in arresting Tibbles.

Mr. S. Ross, for Shields, said the constable honestly believed an offence had been committed and had acted within his powers.

Judge Cameron Smith ordered Tibbles to pay costs.

FLOOD RELIEF

PUBLIC MEETING AT GUILDFORD

Last Wednesday night a public meeting was convened by Guildford Sub-Committee of Holroyd Council's Flood Victims' Fund, held in Guildford School of Arts. The election of office-bearers resulted as follows: President. Aid H. Maley; hon. secretary, Aid. O. D. Young; hon. treasurer. Mr. Bob Porter; Mr. Arthur Robinson, president Guildford R.S.L. and Constable Shields, of Guildford Citizens' Boys Club, completed the executive committee.

After considerable discussion, general opinion of the meeting was that the best method to raise money was by conducting functions. It was decided that it was too late to commence a house to-house collection. Many suggestions were put forward. the three principal ones being, to approach Hoyts Theatres for use of the Regent Theatre for A Sunday entertainment, an evening at Mr. Charlie Davis's private theatrette, and an open-air concert in Guildford Park.

If any persons have any suggestions that may assist the committee, they are invited to contact the sectary. Ald. O. D. Young, at Guildford Hardware Company, who. with the treasurer, Mr. Bob Porter, will also accept any donations.

JUDGE ON PERIL OF WRONG-SIDE CAR PASSING

To overtake on the left side was a dangerous practice for motor-drivers, Judge Lloyd said in Quarter Sessions Appeals Court today.

“It is pretty prevalent in Sydney, Judge Lloyd said. “It has almost become a rule of driving, but some day there may be a very bad accident, he added. The judge made this comment during the hearing of an appeal by Eric Jellinek, Grosvenor St., Woollahra, against severity of a £10 fine imposed by Mr. Stonham, SM, at the Traffic Court on May 8 for overtaking vehicles on the incorrect side in Moore Park Rd., Paddington.

Constable Frederick Joseph Rafferty said he saw Jellinek, who was riding a motor-cycle, pass five vehicles on the wrong side. The constable said this portion of Moore Park Rd, was a dual road separated by plantations. It was the practice for motor-drivers going west to keep close to the plantations on their right-hand side.

Judge Lloyd said it would have been extremely difficult for Jellinek to have overtaken vehicles on the right side.

But there was risk that some vehicle ahead of him might have swung out to Jellinek's right side. In the circumstances. Judge Lloyd said he would reduce the fine from £10 to £2.

Hecklers "Worst Enemies Of Democracy"

SYDNEY, Monday. – Men who heckled public speakers were the "worst enemies of democracy," Judge Barton said in the Quarter Sessions Appeals Court to-day.

He made this comment when hearing the appeal of George Thompson, merchant seaman, 60, against a sentence of one month's gaol for disorderly conduct at a meeting addressed by the Leader of the Opposition (Mr. Menzies) at the Maccabean Hall (Darlinghurst) in September, 1946.

Judge Barton set aside the sentence and imposed a fine of £5. "I have not the slightest sympathy with this type of conduct, and I think it is absolutely essential in democracy to preserve the right of the public to hear what a public man has to say," Judge Barton said. "Although these men may not realise it, through their ignorance, they are in fact the worst enemies of democracy.

“Low Types”

“It looks as if a very low type of citizen banded together to frustrate this meeting, he added.

Constable Frederick Joseph Rafferty said Thompson had shouted: “Pig Iron Bob, you dirty Fascist. We want Eddie: we want Eddie Ward.”

Mr. J. B. Sweeney (for Thompson) said 15 persons had been arrested at the meeting. The other 14 had all been fined, although there was no evidence to show Thompson’s conduct had been any worse than that of the others.

Rowena Andrews RIP Neville.

Thought I recognised the name in the death notices ??

I went through with him at the academy, there were 5 of us from Orange that went through together. This is the photo taken at our passing out parade. Cropped the other girls out but this is a dashing young Neville with a very young me 30/10/87.

Just letting everyone know that is, and has been involved with the RSL Dubbo Music club, we have lost one of our long time members. Neville Archer, not only was he a great singer but also a wonderful happy person who was great to be around. He will be missed by all the music community. He left us early this morning.

For those who knew Neville "Animal" Archer as a fellow hockey player, a great muso, a brother in blue, a loving family member, King of 'Dad Jokes' or even just a fun friend to be around... I invite you all to attend his funeral next Wednesday the 27th of September at Dubbo Uniting Church (Church St) at 11am to remember him for all the good. To give him a wonderful send off, I have organised to head to The Old Bank afterwards to play some tunes and drink some good beer, exactly like Dad would do whenever he got the chance.

Thank you for your support during this hard time

It is with a touch of sadness that former club player and larger than life character Neville Archer passed away peacefully in the early hours of the morning following a battle with a degenerative disease. Rest in peace my good friend, for those club members interested the send off will be in Dubbo with details to follow.

In the early hours of this morning, my Dad won his fight against PSP by finally being free of such a horrible, cruel disease.

Thank you to every single person who has helped Dad and/or myself on this journey and even beforehand... i am forever grateful.

I will be sending Dad off with a muso's jam sesh in Dubbo with date & time TBA.

I love you Dad, fly free xx – with Chuck Wise.
