I can't find John in the 1979 or 1989 issues of the Police Stud Books but the registered numbers fall within the dates – as above.

From Peter Gould:

John was former Liverpool (22 Division). In 1973 John was riding home from work on his motorbike when he was involved in a car accident.

John suffered severe head injuries and I vividly recall us driving his wife to visit him at Lidcombe when he was in rehab. John never recovered from his brain injury.

I also remember John visiting us at the SWOS office.

Prior to the accident John was an extremely fit fella and from memory was previously an Army P.T.I.

From Steve Reeves: His photo in his Boxing gear was displayed in the foyer of the South Sydney Police Boys Club. He is a Vietnam Veteran. A distinguished gentleman who was always immaculately dressed. John was on his way home from work along Elizabeth Drive and when at the intersection of Flowerdale Road a car turned right in front of him. Tragedy. He used to train his children on the grass athletic track alongside Cabramatta Sports Ground. We worked together in the Court Cells at Liverpool. RIP mate.
August 11 at 6:07pm

John was, apparently, a regular visitor to the Redfern Police Academy and Mounted Unit.

VALE

219046 CPL John Henry HEAD
31 March 1942 – 10 August 2017
Aged 75 Years

Sadly, John HEAD passed away after a long illness caused by a motorcycle accident many years ago. John was a NSW Policeman who joined the Army because he was too old for National Service and wanted to serve his country in Vietnam. Because of his police background, John was a direct enlistment into RACMP and served in Vietnam from May 1970 till May 1971. On completion of his six year engagement, John took his discharge and returned to the NSW Police Force. During his Police service, John was involved in a horrific motor cycle accident which resulted in him having to retire from all forms of employment. John was a well respected and well liked member of RACMP and of the NSW Police Force. He was and will always be remembered as a top bloke.

When joining NSW Police Force in 1961, John was described as being 5' 10" tall, 11 stone 6 lb with blue eyes, brown hair and medium complexion.

When he joined he was single but married on 24 August 1962.

Prior to joining "the job" he was a labourer for 2 years 2 months, a Garage attendant for 3 months and shop assistant for 9 months.

On the 17 August 1962 he passed his typing test with 20 w.p.m.

He Passed his Constable 1st Class exam on 22 September 1964.

He was Roman Catholic.

The following note was recorded on his Service Register:

Commended for his good Policemanship whilst off duty on 1st February 1962, when on entering a Milk Bar in Crown Street, Surry Hills, he overheard a man named Paul Wishart inform two youths he had bought a wireless set cheap from an unknown person and he believed it was stolen. The Probationary Constable then questioned Wishart who subsequently accompanied the Probationary Constable to No. 21 Division Headquarters. Wishart was later charged with having a transistor wireless set in his possession reasonably suspected of being stolen or unlawfully obtained, and convicted.

Awarded the " Peter Mitchell Trophy " for 1966 for the " Most Outstanding Sportsman of the Year "

N.T.W. Allan, Commissioner of Police

17 March 1967

After being absent from the NSW Police Force for 2 years & 9 months – whilst serving with the Royal Australian Army Provost Corps during the Vietnam War – John rejoined the NSW Police Force pre February 1972.

He returned just under 1 stone heavier, at 12 stone 5 lb and was still married.

On the 15 September 1972 he passed his General Duty Cars & Utilities / Light Trucks course at the Drive Training Centre.

Canberra Times (ACT : 1926 – 1995), Thursday 14 February 1974,

Man had gun, police say

SYDNEY, Wednesday, –

A man involved in a " violent incident " at Kirribilli yesterday was charged in North Sydney Court today with possessing an unlicensed revolver and with two counts of housebreaking at Kirribilli.

He was Mr Leos Buschenhagen, 26, plumber, of Bondi.

One charge alleged that he had in his possession yesterday at Kirribilli a .45 calibre Webley revolver without holding a licence.

The others alleged that: At Kirribilli yesterday he broke and entered the dwelling house of Alan Marshall in Carrabella Street, and stole a TV set, a pair of binoculars, 107 LP records, a travelling case and 13 bottles of spirits.

At Kirribilli yesterday he broke and entered the dwelling house of Lurline Caffrey in Carrabella Street and stole a TV set, cassette recorder, transistor radio, record player, clock, 12 sets of records, a pair of sheets and a pillowcase.

Mr Buschenhagen was led into court in-handcuffs.

Mr Evans adjourned the matter to February 21 and refused bail.

Man shot by police to be charged

SYDNEY. Tuesday. – A 24-year-old man will be charged when he leaves hospital tomorrow after being shot by a policeman at Kirribilli today.

The man underwent surgery at the Mater Misericordiae Hospital tonight. A police constable required several stitches in a cut hand after the incident.

Constable J. Murray and Senior Constable B. E. Link were investigating an alleged break and enter in a block of flats in Kirribilli, when a man armed with a .38 pistol ran out and grappled with Constable Murray before forcing him to walk to where Constable Link had handcuffed his companion.

Detectives said the man forced Senior Constable Link to release the handcuffed man. Constable Murray tried to take the gun and cut his hand. The man carrying the gun was shot in the elbow as he and his companion ran off.

Another police officer found the men in a lavatory in a nearby apartment block.

North Sydney detectives charged a 24-year-old man tonight with escaping from lawful custody, having an unlicensed pistol, breaking, entering and stealing and three charges of aggravated assault.

My Deepest Sympathies to Christopher and family

Barry aka " The Mukhtar of Corrimal " was a great friend of mine and we shared good times with he and Margaret at the Cyprus Reunions. I was stationed at Wollongong and Warilla but am now living in Adelaide.

Have said a prayer for them both.
